B: Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

16

Read the following text carefully then answer the questions below:

Learning has always been important in Kuwait. Kuwait's educational journey began in the early 20th century. Before formal schools, education in Kuwait was very simple and took place in "Al-Katatib," where students learned to read, write, and recite the Quran. These unofficial schools were usually held in mosques and homes. The teachers were called mullah and muttawa. They were well-liked and respected by their students.

The first modern school in Kuwait, Al-Mubarakiya School, opened in 1911. It was named after Sheikh Mubarak Al-Sabah, the ruler of Kuwait at the time. Al-Mubarakiya offered subjects like maths, Arabic, history, and geography. The school was the beginning of education in Kuwait and played an important role in shaping the school system.

In 1921, a second school, Al-Ahmadiya, was opened. Education for girls started much later. The first girls' school opened in 1937 next to Al-Mubarakiya School. In 1950 Al-Qurain school for girls was opened. These early schools helped build Kuwait's modern education system, which continues to grow and develop. Kuwait continues to honour the days of Al-Katatib by naming some of the new schools after the well-known mullahs or muttawas.

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Parrots are very intelligent birds. They can learn to talk. Some parrots learn hundreds of words! They can also make sounds like the telephone and the dog. Intelligent parrots are also known for their beautiful colours and lovely patterns. They have special toes pointing forward and backward; they help them climb trees easily. Parrots live in warm countries. There are about 350 different kinds of parrots. The smallest is the lovebird. It is only 13 cm long. The biggest is the macaw. It is 100 cm long.

Parrots live in groups. They work together to find food, raise their babies, and help one another. They usually eat fruit, but they sometimes eat seeds and nuts. Parrots can live for a long time. Some parrots can even live up to 80 years or more, making them long-term friends for their owners. However, life is not easy for parrots in the wild. People catch baby parrots and sell them. They are very expensive. They are about $1,000 each. Sometimes people cut down trees with nests. This is a big problem because some parrots only have one baby every two years. We must help these beautiful birds.
