- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Trends are popular things that many people enjoy at the same time. They can be about fashion, games, food or even learning. For example, Bright colours and comfortable clothes are super trendy fashion! Many kids are wearing hoodies, sports shoes, and cool hats. Every person loves to mix and match his clothes to show his personality. Video games are a huge trend also. Kids love playing them. These games allow friends to play together in the same room or far away. In the world of food "bubble tea" is a trend. It's a tasty sweet drink with chewy tapioca which is small balls made of brown sugar. Healthy snacks like fruit and milkshakes are also popular, as kids want to stay refreshed and active for playtime.

Trends in learning make schools more engaging as students have fun working together. They help students explore new ideas and prepare them for the future. Technology in the Classroom is considered a modern trend. It allows students to enjoy classes. Many classrooms are using tablets and computers which make learning interactive and fun. Students can play educational games, watch videos, and even join online field trips to places they have never been to. Working on Group Projects is becoming more popular as a trend. It helps kids learn to share ideas and work together. Plus, it's a great way to make new friends.

Trends are always changing, and that's what makes them exciting. Keep an eye on what's new and join in on the fun.

B. Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Salem always liked to encourage his brother, Ali, and was extremely happy to go with him to the club. After putting on his running clothes, Ali left the changing room to meet the rest of the kids outside on the field. It was the last day of running races, and the weather was nice and cool. The coach and the whole school wanted to see which kid would win the race for the school.

Ali could run well, but he didn't know how well the other boys ran. Would he be good enough to win the first place for his school? Each time it was Ali's turn to run, he began shaking and it was hard to breathe. He was so nervous! The coach knew Ali was afraid, so he pulled him aside and calmly with a soft voice said "Ali, I've seen your running skills. You have no reason to be nervous! Take a deep breath. I know you can do it."

Ali worked very hard to win the race. Taking a deep breath, he got ready with the other boys. He saw his brother Salem and the rest of his family waving to him, which made him very happy. As soon as the whistle blew, he started running. His arms and legs moved faster than they ever had before. He controlled his breathing and stayed focused on the finish line. Ali knew he had won the first place. Ali was smiling from ear to ear. He could turn his fears into the fuel that pushed him to win the race, which was his dream.
