Writing Unti One

"Camping is a fun activity that allows you to enjoy the outdoors "

Plan and write an article of two paragraphs (not less than 12 sentences) about "A Camping Trip" talking about the preparations for the camping trip and the activities we do at the campsite.

(Your writing should include a topic sentence, supporting details and a conclusion)

The plan

A Camping Trip ( رحلة تخيم )

Camping is one of the most interesting activities for many people. My family likes going camping, especially in winter. We do a lot of preparations before going camping. For example, my father buys a tent and other necessary equipment for camping such as lanterns, sleeping bags and camp chairs. Also, my mother prepares different kinds of food and drinks like coffee, tea, milk...etc. Finally, we start packing our bags two days before the trip.

In the campsite we enjoy doing a lot of activities. For instance, my father and brothers put up the tent and make sure everything is okay. Then, my mother begins cooking and preparing lunch. During the day, we enjoy playing games such as football and volleyball. My little brothers prefer riding the quadbikes. In the evening, we set fire and begin singing and sometimes, we play cards or chess. To sum up, camping is really wonderful as it is good opportunity for family members to meet and have fun.

(Your writing should include a topic sentence, supporting details and a conclusion)

The plan

Pollution ( التلوٲ )

Pollution is one of the most serious problems facing mankind today. There are different causes of environmental pollution. First, smoke from cars and factories is the main cause of air pollution. Second, throwing or burning rubbish can also pollute the environment. Third, dumping sewage into the sea can cause water pollution and destroy the marine life. Finally, the overuse of pesticides and fertilizers can pollute the soil and make it unproductive.

There are many things to be done to solve the problem of pollution. For example, using alternative energy sources such as solar energy can play vital role in reducing pollution. Also, recycling materials like paper and glass can reduce pollution .In addition, using public transport instead of cars can reduce air pollution to a great extent. Moreover, people can start cleaning campaigns to clean beaches and forests. Finally, planting more trees can help reduce pollution as trees absorb CO2 and release oxygen.
