

Unit (12)

(VOCABULARY)

From a, b, c and d choose the correct answer:

- 1- The at the theater clapped enthusiastically and called for more.
a- accusation b- audience
c- researcher d- season
- 2- The suspect all the allegations that he had tried to deceive the police.
a- repudiated b- waned
c- agonised d- toured
- 3- The musician played the violin with such skill and emotion that it moved audience to tears.
a- abstract b- molecular c- non-invasive d- gifted
- 4- Despite his modest income, he spent on expensive gadgets and clothes.
a- randomly b- arbitrarily c- specifically d- extravagantly
- 5- His for the Nobel Peace Prize came as a pleasant surprise.
a- genetics b- nomination
c- eternity d- talent
- 6- He would over the thought of disappointing his parents with his study choices.
a- repudiate b- wane
c- agonise d- tour

7- His leadership skills were evident in the way he guided the team to victory.

a- outstanding

b- molecular

c- abstract

d- non-invasive

8- While waiting for the exam results, minutes seemed like hours and hours stretched into an

a- eternity

b- bladder

c- virtuoso

d- digit

9- They Europe, visiting famous landmarks and immersing themselves in different cultures.

a- waned

b- agonised

c- repudiated

d- toured

10- Dr. Ronald has pioneered many alternatives to cosmetic surgery.

a- precocious

b- non-invasive

c- molecular

d- aligned

Fill in the spaces with the suitable word from the list:

(researcher - repudiate - prodigy - aligned - randomly - season)

11- The young chess prodigy stunned the world by defeating grandmasters twice his age.

12- The researcher conducted experiments to gather data for analysis.

13- The bookshelves were perfectly aligned, creating a sense of order in the room.

14- The hunting season is eagerly awaited by outdoor enthusiasts.

15- The winners were randomly selected by a computer programme.

Fill in the spaces with the suitable word from the list:

(talent - repudiate - digit - abstract - arbitrarily - jockey)

- 16- The abstract concept of time has puzzled philosophers for centuries, leading to various theories and interpretations.
- 17- The group was divided arbitrarily into two teams, with no consideration for skill level or experience.
- 18- The suspect quickly moved to repudiate the false accusations made against him.
- 19- The jockey skillfully guided his horse to victory in the final stretch of the race.
- 20- She displayed an extraordinary talent for playing the piano.

Fill in the spaces with the suitable word from the list:

(accusation - high-living - agonise - molecular - accolade - gifted)

- 21- The film director received a/an accolade for his latest movie.
- 22- The writer would agonise over each word, striving for perfection in every sentence.
- 23- The accusation of fraud against the CEO caused a significant drop in the company's stock value.
- 24- From a young age, he showed signs of being gifted in mathematics, solving complex equations with ease.
- 25- The businessman's high-living lifestyle included frequent trips on private jets and stays at luxurious resorts.

(GRAMMAR)

From a, b, c and d choose the correct answer:

- 1- The engineers on the project come from Germany.
a- are working b- worked c- working d- have worked
- 2- The boy.....by a dog was taken to hospital.
a- attacking b- attacks
c- attacked d- is attacking
- 3- The manin the lake is my father.
a- swimming b- swam
c- swum d- has swum
- 4- My bike is as new yours.
a- so b- like
c- as d- also
- 5- Susan is not hard-working as her sister.
a- as b- but
c- so d- such
- 6- The government imposed a night-time curfew the country.
a- at b- throughout c- on d- between
- 7- You'll be impressed the brightness and the beauty of the colors.
a- with b- of
c- in d- at 8- The winners were randomly chosen a computer.

a- with

b- off

c- by

d- on

9- If you're not satisfied the life you're living, don't just complain.

a- in

b- between

c- to

d- with

10- I will certainly be present the meeting, but I am not sure about my colleague.

a- with

b- of

c- at

d- on

From a, b and c choose the correct answer as required:

11- That woman who is talking to my wife is our neighbour.

(Reduce the relative clause)

a- That woman talking my wife is our neighbour.

b- That woman talks my wife is our neighbour.

c- That woman talked my wife is our neighbour.

12- Anyone who is interested in the environment should read this book.

(Reduce the relative clause)

a- Anyone is interesting in the environment should read this book.

b- Anyone interested in the environment should read this book.

c- Anyone interesting in the environment should read this book.

13- My sister won the race (beat) all her rivals. (Correct the verb)

a- My sister won the race beaten all her rivals.

b- My sister won the race beats all her rivals.

c- My sister won the race beating all her rivals.

14- Sara is open-minded. Katherine is also open-minded.

(Join using as.....as) a- Sara is as open-minded as Katherine.

b- Sara is as Katherine as open-minded.

c- Sara is as open-minded as also Katherine.

15- Playing video games is not good. Exercising is good.

(Join using not as.....as) a- Playing video games is as good not as exercising.

b- Playing video games is as not good as exercising.

c- Playing video games is not as good as exercising.